

Authority to Sell Invention

Date Jan 31st 1959

Universal Invention Sales,
478 South Main Street,
Marion, Ohio

Gentlemen:

This is your authority to sell or license my invention on terms and conditions listed below:

"Curl-st" Hair Brush (Slit-Bristled)

Name of your invention on this line

I herein enclose $25.00 as payment for your fee of examining the above invention and such fee is to cover listing of the invention for sale if found acceptable to you.

I can accept or reject any offer you secure for my invention and I reserve the right to cancel the authority granted you herein at any time I elect. I further reserve the right to negotiate the sale of my invention to, or through, other parties; if a sale is made other than through your organization, then you are to receive no additional compensation

For any sale that you may negotiate, that I accept, you are to receive 10% (ten percent) of all money or moneys payable to me, direct from the purchaser as additional compensation. Beyond this I am not financially obligated to you in any manner.

You are privileged to disclose to interested potential purchasers the confidential information I have disclosed to you, after they have evidenced interest in negotiating the purchase or license of my invention. If my invention is unpatented, I further claim that I have taken measures to protect my invention by preparing evidence of conception prior to the date of disclosing my invention to you.
